TRAVEL INFORMATION

HIGHWAY TRAVEL
 Highway 1/Trans-Canada runs from Vancouver and Hope to Cache Creek, before turning east. Highway 97 runs north from the US border to Prince George, and on to become the Alaska Highway at Dawson Creek. Highway 99, the Sea to Sky Highway, connects West Vancouver to Highway 97, just north of Cache Creek. Highway 20, the Freedom Highway, runs west from Williams Lake to Bella Coola. It is hard surfaced, except for a 60-kilometre stretch of gravel road west of Anahim Lake. Highway 24, the "Fishing Highway", connects Highway 97 to Highway 5 at Little Fort. It is a scenic drive through the Interlakes area. Highway 26, starting at Quesnel, connects Highway 97 to Wells, and ends at Barkerville Historic Town & Park.

FERRY TRAVEL
 For 2019, the Northern Sea Wolf now sails the Discovery Coast Connector routes in our region. We are also accessed by the Inside Passage-Central Coast-Bella Coola route, onboard the Northern Expedition. Depending on your destination, you may change vessels along the way. Reservations should be made well in advance for travel on Inside Passage and the Discovery Coast Connector routes to Great Bear Rainforest communities. Check with BC Ferries for current schedules and reservations and book ahead.
