

GUEST RANCH EXPERIENCES

EXPERIENCE THE SPIRIT OF THE WEST

The Cariboo Chilcotin Coast is home to some of British Columbia's most iconic guest ranches. From historic working ranches and Indigenous-owned properties to luxury eco-resorts and remote wilderness lodges, each offers a unique connection to the land, Western culture, and the spirit of adventure. Guests can experience horseback riding, fly fishing, wellness retreats, wildlife viewing, and immersive wilderness journeys in landscapes shaped by ranching heritage and natural beauty. Authentic Western Hospitality. Wild Landscapes. Unforgettable Stays.

Big Creek Lodge (office@bigcreeklodgebc.com)

A remote Chilcotin wilderness lodge offering year-round horseback riding, backcountry exploration, and personalized adventure experiences.

Echo Valley Ranch & Spa (info@evranch.com)

A luxury wellness ranch combining horseback riding, outdoor adventures, and two world-class spas featuring Thai and Western therapies.

Courtesy: Echo Valley Ranch & Spa

Terra Nostra Guest Ranch

(ch.gisler@terranostra-guestranch.com)

A lakeside ranch retreat along Highway 20 offering horseback riding, canoeing, fishing, and floatplane fly-out adventures to nearby alpine landscapes.

Courtesy: Big Creek Lodge

The Flying U Ranch (reservations@flyingu.com)

Canada's oldest continuously operating guest ranch, known for its exceptional horse program, lakeside activities, and traditional ranch hospitality.

Courtesy: Terra Nostra Guest Ranch

Watch Lake Lodge & Guest Ranch

(dimps@watchlake.com)

A family-owned working ranch offering rustic cabins, daily trail rides, and excellent rainbow trout fishing in the South Cariboo.

Wettstone Guest Ranch (welcome@wettstone-ranch.com) Peaceful lakeside ranch featuring trail riding, canoeing, kayaking, and relaxed Western hospitality.

Wilderness Trails Guest Ranch

(info@wildernesstrails.ca)

Located in the Chilcotin Ark, this ranch offers wilderness pack trips, wildlife tracking, and conservation-focused outdoor experiences.

Beaver Guest Ranch

(infos@beaverguest ranch.com) A cozy log home nestled in the heart of British Columbia's interior. Untouched nature. Breathtaking scenery and picturesque landscapes make it's the perfect place to unwind and relax. Offers a variety of activities, including trail, canoeing, mountain biking, fishing on one of the many lakes that surround us (fishing equipment can be provided). European touch and provide accommodation, breakfast, and dinner.

Big Bar Guest Ranch

(guestrelations@bbgr.ca) Indigenous-owned heritage ranch located beneath the Marble Range offering horseback riding, fishing, wildlife viewing, and cultural experiences in a historic ranch setting.

WHY CHOOSE A CARIBOO CHILCOTIN COAST GUEST RANCH?

- Authentic Western ranch heritage
- Indigenous-owned cultural experiences
- Luxury eco-certified ranch resorts
- World-class horseback riding programs
- Lakeside and wilderness settings
- Wellness, culinary, and conservation experiences
- Family-friendly to transformative wilderness stays

Courtesy: Watch Lake Lodge

Siwash Lake Wilderness Resort & Ranch

(explore@siwashlake.com)

An award-winning eco-luxury ranch offering all-inclusive stays, private guided riding, fly fishing, wilderness adventures, and farm-to-table dining.

Kayanara Guest Ranch (info@kayanara.com) A 220-acre eco-friendly guest ranch in British Columbia's South Cariboo offering sustainable farm-stay cabins, farm-fresh experiences, and immersive nature retreats surrounded by forests, trails, and wildlife.

Courtesy: Big Bar Guest Ranch